Creating a Monster:
Gothic Fiction or Science Fiction?
[Searching for the Gothic]

DIRECTIONS: The class is going to twice-view a clip from Kenneth Branagh's adaptation of Frankenstein. During the first viewing take note of everything in the scene that points to it being Gothic. During the second viewing, take note of everything suggesting that the scene is a work of science fiction! Try to remember the genre conventions we have been discussing, and don't be afraid to nit-pick for details!

Gothic Fiction (1st Viewing)	Science Fiction (2nd Viewing)
